

I Know That My Redeemer Lives

Job 19 : 25-27

I. The Context:

A. Job rebukes his friends because they fail to comfort him

(Job 19:1-6; cf. 16:1)

B. Job feels that everything is against him (Job 19:7-22)

C. Job regards what he is about to say as so important that he wishes it recorded in a permanent manner

(Job 19:23-24)

II. In His grief, Job turns (in hope) to God as his Vindicator: (Job 19:25-27)

A. “I Know that My Redeemer Lives”

1. The Hebrew word, Go’el means

“Redeemer”

“Kinsman Redeemer”

“Vindicator”

2. The Go'el Institution Involves a Package of laws:

a. Levirate Marriage

(Deut. 25:5f.; Ruth 4:5, 10; Matt. 22:24)

b. The Redemption of Property

(Lev. 25:23-28).

The Go'el has the responsibility to buy back the property.

c. The Redemption of Persons – the Go'el is Responsible to buy the Person back (Lev. 25:25)

d. The Redemption of Blood
(Num. 35; Deut. 19:1-13)

e. Restitution (Repayment of the Go'el)
(Num. 5:8)

B. “He will take His stand on the earth.”

C. “I shall see God.”

1 Corinthians 13:12

1 John 3:1-3

Revelation 22:4

III. Job's Go'el is the Lord Jesus Christ.

John 1:14; 12:45; 14:7-11;

Col. 1:15;

Heb. 1:3; 2:17-18

Lesson:

Real hope is found only through faith in Jesus Christ, the true
Kinsman-Redeemer.

I Know That My Redeemer Lives